Introduction

Cams Hill School is committed to creating an environment where exemplary behaviour is at the heart of productive learning. Good behaviour is crucial to helping children achieve their potential, both academically and as members of the school and wider community. Everyone is expected to maintain the highest standards of personal conduct, to accept responsibility for their behaviour and encourage others to do the same. As members of our school community, we adhere to the values of being: 'Ready, Respectful, Safe' (RRS).

We believe that promoting good behaviour and rewarding success, coupled with having clear rules that are fair and easily understood, helps pupils to do this. The vast majority of pupils behave well, are friendly and cooperative, and act as excellent ambassadors for the school and others. It is important that their successes are recognised through praise and rewards. Some pupils may struggle from time to time, either because of issues at home or because of other factors. Central to ethos of Cams Hill School is the understanding that we will all work together- staff, parents and pupils- to ensure the best possible outcomes for every single pupil.

Cams Hill School considers all reasonable adjustments when applying the Good Behaviour Policy.

Principles

At Cams Hill School, we believe that every person is equally important and that no one has a right to harass, insult or cause offence to any other person for any reason. We particularly reject the way that some people abuse others, because of issues relating to age, gender, ethnicity, disability, sexual orientation or any other reason. We believe that these principles underpin pupils' behaviour and all that we do as adults.

It is the school's intention to provide every pupil with the opportunity to reach their full potential in an environment which encourages co-operation, understanding and tolerance. We aim to create an environment where teachers can teach and every child can learn freely and fully without disturbance. We encourage positive relationships and aim to develop the personal skills and discipline needed to be successful in later life.

We seek positive relationships with all our parents, guardians and carers and wish to encourage a shared approach to ensure that pupils achieve their potential, both academically and as members of the school and wider community.

We meet the needs of our learners by offering them every opportunity to learn and develop in order to fulfil their potential. We celebrate our skills, talents and successes within a community underpinned by the principles identified in four words; inspire, nurture achieve and excel:

- Inspire all our pupils through challenging, engaging and enjoyable learning experiences that maximise progress, achievement, attainment and enjoyment.
- Nurture and care for pupils in an environment that recognises, support, advises and guides each and every individual. Personalised care is vital in ensuring that all pupils feel valued and are therefore able to achieve their potential.
- Achieve to the highest possible standards. We believe that a strong academic educational foundation provides our pupils with the skills and attributes to progress to life beyond Cams Hill School with confidence and resilience.
- Excel above and beyond basic expectations. We are proud to challenge, stretch and encourage pupils to understand that there are no limits. We encourage them to aim high and be confident to make mistakes, overcome obstacles and 'bounce back' in times of adversity.

We continue to develop an ethos for learning and achievement based on outstanding teaching, a challenging, enriching and relevant curriculum and high standards of behaviour.

We aim to provide the best possible educational experience for all of our community within a well-ordered and purposeful learning environment ensuring all members of Cams Hill School are 'Ready, Respectful and Safe'.

We believe passionately in the power of praise and recognition as a key tool to motivate and encourage a growth mind-set. We aim to ensure that praise will outweigh criticism by a ratio of 5:1.

Sanctions, based on restorative approaches to rebuild relationships, are used to moderate and to raise awareness of acceptable behaviours which will enable pupils to learn and thrive.

Multi-agency referrals and assessments are will be used to identify and meet the needs of pupils who display persistent, disruptive behaviour; managed moves, school to school referrals and alternative provision are utilised as appropriate.

We ensure that our Good Behaviour Policy follows the latest guidance documents from the Department for Education (Appendix 1).

We also acknowledge the school's legal duties under the Equality Act 2010, in respect of safeguarding and in respect of pupils with special educational needs.

Praise and Reward

Our praise and recognition system is designed to celebrate the success of all our pupils. It is underpinned by the belief that continual praise of each pupil's own personal best behaviour and attitude to work is fundamental to establishing and reinforcing appropriate behaviour and work patterns. Verbal praise, telephone calls home and positive postcards are used routinely to create and reinforce positive relationships at all times. These are recorded by the teacher on Class Charts.

Credits are awarded by all staff and are logged on the positive section of Class Charts. The number of credits received by pupils is monitored by the Tutor and Head of Year. Individual progress is reviewed weekly and used as a basis for discussion and further achievement. Every term, pupils will attend celebratory assemblies. Credits give instant recognition and motivation for achievements in subject areas, and from Head of Year.

Embedding a Positive Culture

Pupils are expected to be:

Ready

1. Be on time; have all equipment; wear full school uniform.
2. Have an open mind to new ideas, new learning, new concepts.
3. Expect to be stretched and challenged.

Respectful

1. Follow instructions from all members of staff.
2. Listen to others; use appropriate language; be kind in what they say and what they do.
3. Look after equipment, displays, buildings, the environment and our community.

Safe

1. Follow all rules for health and safety; walk on the left in corridors; walk in pairs.
2. Look out for - and after - each other, keeping everyone safe.
3. Be in the right place at the right time, not in unsupervised areas.

Staff will deal with any pupils who are not behaving in a way that is 'Ready Respectful or Safe' in a consistent, calm and adult manner. Staff will take personal responsibility to follow things through with pupils and to engage in restorative dialogue to rebuild relationships. In lessons the class teacher will follow the procedures below with any pupil whose conduct is hindering their own learning and that of the other pupils in the class. Each lesson will be treated as a fresh start.

Stepped Actions – delivered in private
Reminder Remind the pupil of the expectations linked to Ready, Respectful, Safe
Caution Give a clear verbal caution to make the pupil aware of their behaviour clearly outlining the consequences to come
Time out Ask the pupil to stand outside the class for no more than 2 minutes with the restorative reflection card so that the pupil can reflect on their next steps. Before the pupil re-enters, the teacher will speak to the pupil outside to reset the boundaries, again reminding the pupil of their previous good conduct/attitude/learning, and giving them a final opportunity to engage to avoid being parked in another lesson. Log on class charts
Parking Ask the pupil to leave the lesson, with work, to go to the appropriate ‘parking lot’ within the department. Log on ClassCharts
Restorative Conversation (Restorative 5) If at all possible a Reflective Discussion should take place on the same day and certainly before the next lesson, or as soon as possible afterwards. This should be a non-confrontational conversation regarding the behaviour The pupil should be encouraged to reflect on the impact and consequences of behaving in a similar way in the future. The member of staff should offer examples of good behaviour the pupil has displayed they wish to see more of. The member of staff must be prepared to listen and take action on feedback from the pupil as to what they feel is contributing to their behaviour, e.g. level of work, others in the classroom, seating plans. Referrals to Key Stage/Year teams could be an action from this discussion. The pupil and member of staff should both leave the discussion feeling they have moved on from the behaviour with clear expectation set. If the pupil does not attend or the reconciliation is unsuccessful the member of staff should call on support from their line manager who will support the Reflective Discussion process. Curriculum leaders and experienced colleagues will stand alongside offering support and guidance. They will not discipline pupils in isolation. Reflective Discussions can happen for more than one incident and should be happening throughout the process without resorting to formal processes where possible.

Consequences for being parked include ‘imposition’ to complete missed work in the pupil’s own time and a restorative conversation. This will be held on the same day at break/lunch/after school for approximately 20 minutes.

The expectation that pupils will behave in such a way that they are ‘Ready Respectful Safe’ also applies during break and lunch times, on the way to and from school, on a trip and in any other circumstance that could adversely affect the reputation of the school, have repercussions for the orderly running of the school and/or pose a threat to another pupil in the school. In addition, other pupils will face consequences if they choose to associate with pupils who are not behaving in a way that is ‘Ready Respectful Safe’.

Pupils who persistently behave in such a way that demonstrates that they are not ‘Ready Respectful Safe’ will be referred for further assessment (internally or externally) to ensure they do not have any unmet needs. In addition, such pupils will be monitored by the Curriculum Leader or the Year team as appropriate to individual cases.

Internal isolation, Senior Leadership Team seclusion, Headteacher isolation, external isolation (school to school inclusion) and fixed term exclusions may also be used for pupils who are persistent offenders.

Cams Hill School works closely with other local secondary schools and consequently managed moves may be used to give a pupil a fresh start in a different environment. In addition, we will refer pupils to alternative provision as appropriate with similar protocols to those described above.

Internal Isolation (Time to Reflect)

There are alternative facilities which are used for those demonstrating behaviours which would usually lead to a fixed term exclusion, it is a consequence for pupils who behave poorly and gives them an opportunity to reflect on their behaviour for learning. Internal isolation in the Time to Reflect Room allows pupils to access the school curriculum enabling them to remain part of the school community. Time to Reflect reinforces expectations, the school rules and gives guidance to pupils to ensure that, although excluded from mainstream sessions, they still have specialist support. Time to Reflect runs from 0830 through to 1515 or Extended Day runs from 0800 through to 1600. Pupils who miss a day(s) in internal isolation through illness, non-compliance or any other reason will be expected to complete that day(s) prior to returning back into mainstream classes. Pupils are expected to work in silence away from the rest of the school community. Pupils will have alternative rest breaks.

Senior Leadership Team Seclusion

The school may require pupils to complete their period of isolation under the supervision of a member of the Senior Leadership Team with similar protocols as those discussed above.

External Isolation - School to School inclusion

The school may require pupils to complete their period of isolation off site at another local school with whom the school has agreed similar protocols as those described above for internal isolation.

Headteacher Isolation

In some situations, the school may require pupils to complete their period of isolation with the Headteacher; similar protocols as those discussed above will apply.

Exclusions

When an incident is deemed sufficiently serious that a detention or other in-school sanction is insufficient, the Headteacher may decide to exclude a pupil, either for a Fixed-Period or Permanently. If a pupil is excluded for more than six days, alternative provision will be arranged. Parents have a right to make an appeal to the Governors' Disciplinary Committee.

Screening and Searching

School staff have the power to search all pupils with their consent and, if necessary, to confiscate the following items:

Banned Items

- Knives and any dangerous items which can be construed as weapons, including aerosols (including aerosol deodorant), fireworks and laser light pointers
- Alcohol
- Illegal drugs
- Stolen items
- Tobacco (including e-cigarettes and filters), lighters/matches and cigarette papers
- Pornographic images
- Energy drinks
- Any article that has been or is likely to be used to commit an offence, cause personal injury or damage to property

Weapons and knives, as well as any illegal drugs, will, where applicable, be handed over to the police.

Items which are not Banned

- Mobile phones, iPods and other mp3 players and Smart Devices (pupils are allowed to have these items in school but they will be confiscated if they are used)
- Smart watches (pupils are allowed to have these in school but they must be used solely to tell the time. These items will be confiscated if they are used for any other purpose.

Mobile phones, iPods and mp3 players will be confiscated for three days; stolen items will be returned to their owners where possible; other items may be destroyed.

The school is not required to inform parents before a search takes place and there is no legal requirement to inform parents/guardians/carers of the result of any search. However, the school will always seek to keep parents/guardians/ carers informed.

In accordance with DfE guidance, the school will take account of the specific circumstances of pupils and will have regard to legislation concerning equal opportunities, SEN, disability and vulnerable pupils.

Mobile Phones/Smart Devices

Cams Hill School does not allow mobile phones and other mobile/smart devices to be used during the school day. Research proves they can disrupt learning and progress and lead to increased incidents of bullying. If they are brought into school, they should be switched off and kept out of sight. Items are brought in at the owner's risk and Cams Hill School cannot take responsibility for loss or damage to these devices.

If a pupil is seen taking a phone or mobile/smart device out during the day, it will be confiscated and put in the school safe regardless of whether the phone or mobile/smart device is the property of the person in possession of it. It will be securely locked away for three days. A phone call home will be made to advise parents and carers that this has taken place.

The school acknowledges that some parents and pupils may feel safer with access to a mobile phone. There is a school mobile phone which may be made available for a pupil to borrow if their phone has been confiscated. Use of this temporary phone will need to be organised via the Headteacher's PA and is only available in exceptional circumstances.

Social Media

The school prohibits the publishing and distribution of any images which brings its name into disrepute, such as posting inappropriate images of pupils in uniform on Facebook or other social media. This could include activities which take place offsite, if the Headteacher believes that this behaviour is detrimental to the reputation of the school.

Pupils who are discovered to have accessed social media sites during the school day may be sanctioned and the device which they used to access the site will be confiscated for three days.

Reasonable Force

In accordance with DfE guidelines ("Use of Reasonable Force", July 2013), the school does not operate a "no touch" policy and there are occasions when physical contact with a pupil is "proper and necessary". These may include:

- Comforting a distressed pupil
- Congratulating or praising a pupil
- Demonstrating how to use a musical instrument
- Demonstrating exercises or techniques during PE lessons or sports coaching
- Giving first aid

There may also be occasions when “reasonable force” is needed, such as:

- Removing disruptive children from the classroom where they have refused to follow an instruction to do so
- Preventing a pupil behaving in a way that disrupts a school event or a school trip or visit
- Preventing a pupil leaving the classroom where allowing the pupil to leave would risk their safety or lead to behaviour that disrupts the behaviour of others
- Preventing a pupil from attacking a member of staff or another pupil, or to stop a fight in the playground

In addition, the Headteacher and staff authorised by the Headteacher can use such force as is reasonable when searching a pupil without consent for prohibited items.

In all instances, the School will always notify parents, guardians and carers in incidents where reasonable force has been used, although there is no statutory requirement to do so. These incidents will be recorded and reported annually to the governing body.

Allegations of Abuse against Staff

Any allegations of abuse should be reported to the Headteacher and will be dealt with according to the Staff Discipline, Conduct and Grievance Procedure policy.

The Headteacher will ensure every effort is made to maintain confidentiality for the pupil and staff and will guard against unwanted publicity during the investigation. A member of staff will not automatically be suspended following an allegation - this outcome will only be determined as a result of evidence collated by the investigation.

Any allegations later proved to be false may result in action being taken against the pupil(s) who has/have made these claims.

APPENDIX 1 - Guidance Documents from the Department for Education

We ensure that our Good Behaviour Policy follows the latest guidance documents from the Department for Education:
